MEMORANDUM FOR: Distribution

FROM:

Director, Community Counterintelligence and Security Countermeasures Staff

SUBJECT: Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) Forum

REFERENCE: SECOM-D-160, 6 June 1986

1. The first meeting of the Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI) Forum will be held on Thursday, 25 September 1986, from 1300-1430 hours in [redacted] Washington, D.C.

2. This meeting is being convened to discuss the draft memorandum establishing the Forum, which was attached to the cited reference, and to discuss generally the group's role in recommending and formulating policy relative to SCI.

3. The Forum will assume certain responsibilities and functions previously contained in the SECOM charter. Some actions still pending after initiation under SECOM will be brought to resolution and conclusion by the Forum. In this regard, attendees are requested to bring to this meeting their agency's comments on the drafts of DCID 1/7 and DCID 1/19 (see SECOM D-135 and SECOM-D-136 dated May 1986). Attendees are invited to be prepared to surface any topics they wish to be considered by the Forum at future meetings.

4. Members or alternates planning to attend the meeting are requested to provide full name, organization, and social security number to Mrs. Eleanor McLaughlin, 351-2001, not later than 23 September 1986. Security access approvals (SI, TK) should be certified to [redacted] IC Staff, through CIA Compartmented Information Branch, [redacted]
